Seasonal load restrictions will go into effect on some North Dakota state highways March 12

Effective 7 a.m. CT, Wednesday, March 12, load restrictions will be in effect on highways in the south west and south central regions of the state.

All other previously implemented restrictions will remain in effect. More restrictions are anticipated later this week.

Seasonal load restriction information is available on the Internet and by dialing 511. There is a Load Restriction Email update feature that one can subscribe to on our website, <http://www.dot.nd.gov/roadreport/loadlimit/loadlimitinfo.asp>.
